

I oppose loosening the rules designed to promote and protect diversity of media ownership. These rules were adopted to ensure that the public would receive a diverse range of viewpoints from the media, and not simply the opinions of a handful of media conglomerates.

I've seen less and less diversity in the news over the years. If it were not for the internet, I would consider myself ignorant of national and world affairs. The consolidation of media and the corporate take-over of PBS is truly a shame and a betrayal to the American people.
